"THE FOREIGNERS BRACKET"

The Star and the Laurel: The centennial history of Daimler, Mercedes, and Benz, 1886-1986

by Beverly Rae Kimes

Montvale, N.J. : Mercedes-Benz of North America, 1986. 368 p., [32] p. of plates : ill. (some col.) ; 31 cm. One hundred years ago two German inventors, toiling in workshops only sixty miles apart, independently came up with a machine. The Star and the Laurel is a celebration of the automobile's first century and of the part Benz and Daimler, then Daimler-Benz played in the industry.
